EVO LAB.

HIP, KNEE, HAND & SHOULDER
SURGERY TRAINING COURSES

Dear colleague, dear partner,

I am happy to inform today that the registration for the 2026 EvoLab - Evolutis Surgery Training Courses - is now open. The list of training courses, topic, partner center of excellence, and school of organization is listed below.

The sequence of each course is always the same except for the location:

- > arrival of participants on Thursday evening in the city where the course is organized
- > a welcome dinner is organized for the whole group on Thursday night
- > on Friday morning, around 8:00 am, the group is transferred to the school of medicine
- > from 8:30 to 9:00 am the program is presented to the group, together with a rationale of the device used, and with a short presentation by the teacher(s) of their practice
- > from 9:00 am the teacher(s) will perform a surgery on specimen while explaining the surgical approach, the general use of the instrumentation, and their own tips and tricks
- > from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm the participants will be invited to practice individually on specimen with the assistance of the teacher(s) and of the product specialists of Evolutis.

Please note that registering candidates for any of the Training Course implies the acceptance of the Rules of Organization (see below). In the meantime, I remain at your disposal for any information or help.

MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

MEET . . . . TRAIN . . . . PRACTICE

MEET our experts, exchange with our teams & surgeon partners, to upgrade and sharp your knowledges on our products. TRAIN yourself and get all tips & tricks on different techniques by attending the courses. PRACTICE on anatomical courses on specimens. Enjoy your EVOLAB, optimize your expertise and MAKE THE DIFFERENCE by using Evolutis products.

« The authors sincerely thank those who donated their bodies to science so that anatomical research could be performed. Results from such research can potentially increase mankind's overall knowledge that can then improve patient care. Therefore, these donors and their families deserve our highest gratitude. » - Wanaga, Joe, et al. Clinical Anatomy, 34(1) 2-4, 2021.

HIP, KNEE, HAND & SHOULDER

Dear colleague, dear partner,

I am happy to inform today that the registration for the 2023 EvoLab - Evolutis Surgery Training Courses is now open. The list of training courses, topic, partner center of excellence, and school of organization is listed below.

The sequence of each course is always the same except for the location:

- > arrival of participants on Thursday evening in the city where the course is organized
- > a welcome dinner is organized for the whole group on Thursday night
- > on Friday morning, around 8:00 am, the group is transferred to the school of medicine
- > from 8:30 to 9:00 am the program is presented to the group, together with a rationale of the device used, and with a short presentation by the teacher(s) of their practice
- > from 9:00 am the teacher(s) will perform a surgery on specimen while explaining the surgical approach, the general use of the instrumentation, and their own tips and tricks
- > from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm the participants will be invited to practice individually on specimen with the assistance of the teacher(s) and of the product specialists of Evolutis.

Please note that registering candidates for any of the Training Course implies the acceptance of the Rules of Organization (see below). In the meantime, Amandine and I remain at your disposal for any information or help.
